

Jacobi-type algorithms for the Hamiltonian eigenvalue problem

We present recent results on Jacobi-type algorithms for real Hamiltonian matrices. We describe both, real and complex algorithms. The algorithms use orthogonal (unitary) and non-orthogonal shear transformations. Convergence and accuracy properties of the algorithms are discussed.