Basins of attraction of equilibrium points and periodic solutions of some second order dfference equations with quadratic terms

Mehmed Nurkanović

We investigate the basins of attraction of equilibrium points and period-two solutions of some second order difference equations with quadratic terms. We show that the boundaries of the basins of attractions of different locally asymptotically stable equilibrium points are in fact the global stable manifolds of neighboring saddle or non-hyperbolic equilibrium points.